Winemaking

Timing the harvest is the most important decision for the winemaker. This year we achieved to make two harvests in the vineyard, based and focused on the average organoleptic characteristics perceived in two different stages of the grape's maturation. For the winemaking, we followed the principals of classic white fermentation for 55% of the grapes where the rest 45% had skin contact at 10°C for 48hours. Only yeast derivatives were applied for the stability and natural fining of the wine.

Tasting Note

Pale yellow colour. An elegant nose composed of citrus fruit and pear with oyster and shellfish notes. Long and balanced on the palate with full flavoured mouthfeel of lemon zest and slightly mineral aftertaste.

Food Matches

All sea food such as grilled calamari and fish, white meat such as pork with celery and a large variety of cheese and vegetable pies. Serve at 9°C-10°C.
