Winemaking

The vineyard is located at Douli village in terraces in a sandy-clay soil with a great amount of sea shells. The grapes were hand harvested during the first week of September. They had 2,5 hours skin contact and the free run juice was settled before inox (25%) and barrel fermentation (75%). The barrel-fermented wine matured in oak for a total of 2 months.

Tasting Note

Pale straw-yellow colour. Intense aromas of stone fruits are coupled with creamy spices and liquorice notes from the oak with a touch of citrus blossom. Palate is rich and juicy with balanced acidity, fruity mouthfeel and lengthy finish.

Food Matches

All sea food, all kind of risotto, a large variety of dishes with white meat and cheese. Serve at 10°C-12°C.
